Formal Disciplinary Warning (Strike) and Salary Deduction

Dear Evans,

This letter serves as a formal disciplinary warning (Strike) regarding the neglect of your official duties as the Media Person for our company.

It has been observed that you have consistently failed to meet the core responsibilities of your role, including managing our media presence, producing timely content, and executing assigned tasks. Despite previous verbal warnings regarding performance expectations, there has been no satisfactory improvement.

As a direct consequence of this ongoing neglect of duty, a penalty deduction of GH¢ 200 (Two Hundred Ghanaian Cedis) will be applied to your salary for this current pay cycle.

Required Action & Expectations:

Moving forward, you are expected to immediately rectify your work attitude and fulfill the following requirements:

1. Active Management: Consistently manage and update all designated company media platforms.
2. Timely Delivery: Meet all deadlines for media production, campaigns, and content scheduling without reminders.
3. Accountability: Ensure your daily and weekly media deliverables are fully completed and reported to management.

Please be advised that this serves as an official strike on your employment record. Failure to show immediate, sustained improvement in your performance will result in further disciplinary action, up to and including the termination of your employment contract.

Please sign the duplicate copy of this letter below to acknowledge that you have received and understood this notice.

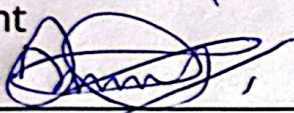

Employee Acknowledgment

I, Evans Kyei, acknowledge receipt of this disciplinary letter and understand the terms and consequences outlined herein.
