Formal Disciplinary Warning (Strike) and Salary Deduction

Dear Christabel Marcel Quayson,

This letter serves as an official written warning (strike) regarding your continued failure to report to work on time. Reporting to work on time is a core requirement of your role, and persistent tardiness negatively impacts team operations and overall workplace productivity. Because verbal warnings have proven ineffective, management is taking formal disciplinary action under company policy.

A financial deduction of GH¢ 300.00 (Three Hundred Ghana Cedis) will be made from your upcoming salary payout for the month of July, 2026.

A copy of this written warning will be placed in your official personnel file.

Required Corrective Action

You are expected to:

1. Report to work promptly at your scheduled start time of 8:00 AM every workday.
2. Immediately notify your supervisor in advance if an emergency prevents you from arriving on time.

Please note that continued lateness or failure to meet workplace attendance standards will lead to further disciplinary measures, up to and including suspension or termination of employment.
